MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

December Trivia Question: What Union general said, “ May God have mercy on General Lee, for I will have none”.

HINT: He was defeated by Lee at Chancellorsville.

Answer to the November question: .58 Caliber Minie Ball.

WHAT WE'RE READING – “The Emerging Civil War”, Chris Mackowski. The Great Battle Never Fought: The Mine Run Campaign, November 26-December 2 1863 recounts the final chapter of the forgotten fall of 1863—when George Gordon Meade made one final attempt to save the Union and, in doing so, save himself.

IMPORTANT ROOM CHANGE INFORMATION: We have changed our meeting location. The closest parking lot will be “Lot 1”. Once you park in lot one, look for the large clock tower. That is our library. If you walk up the stairs next to the library the “Bartlett Hall” will be the first building on the right. Enter the main doors, and our room will be on that floor. Room number 203.

Food Drive: We are still collecting non-perishable goods for our food drive. Please bring something in to go to a good cause

Social Media: Please remember to like and share our social media page. We had our speaker this month tag and share our page and I was immediately contacted by another historian who was interested in our round table. Social media works as much as we participate in it

Clothing for Sale! The Jersey Shore Civil War Round Table has a full line of clothing available for those interested. T-Shirts, sweatshirts, jackets ect... are ready to ship! Contact Rick Trimble if you are interested.

Special Thanks: A special thanks to Neal McHale and Allison Irwin from Student Life for their efforts at securing rooms for us and for Neal’s “Tech Help” on many recent nights.
