Last month we were honored to have Patrick Hayes who edited the diary of James Sheeran the chaplain of the 9th Louisiana. His outside perspective of witnessing the Civil War in a different light, gave the audience a taste of the conflict from a lens we are not used to looking through.

WE MEET THE SECOND WEDNESDAY OF EVERY MONTH AT 7 PM September through June - Meetings will be in Conference Rooms of the College Center (Bld. 10-A) (across from the Planetarium).

WE CHARGE YEARLY DUES OF $25 per person, $35 per family, Free for OCC students due Sept. 1

MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

Which famous Confederate submarine sunk to the bottom of the ocean on February 17th, 1864?

Answer to November's question: What does the "S" stand for in Ulysses S. Grant?

NOTHING!

WHAT WE'RE READING – James McPherson’s newest book, “The War That Forged a Nation: Why the Civil War Still Matters” is a new release in the historical community. Thoughtful, provocative, and authoritative. This piece of work looks anew at the reasons America’s Civil War has remained a subject of intense interest for the past century and a half, affirms the enduring relevance of the conflict for America today.

Apparel- The Jersey Shore Civil War Round Table has a full line of clothing available for those interested. T-Shirts, sweatshirts, jackets ect... are ready to ship! Contact Rick Trimble if you are interested.

Reminders: Don’t forget to bring a dollar for the annual holiday gift basket drawing! We will be drawing off a “chock full of stuff”-Richard Trimble

In a case of inclement weather, our meetings will be dependent on the college’s decision to remain open, or close.

ELECTION RESULTS!
