For May, we were honored to have Bruce Tucker in his reenactment of Rear Adm. David Farragut. Tucker not only gave an amazing presentation, but also was able to stay in character for ALL of the question and answer portion of the performance.

MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

May Trivia Question: What became of Robert E. Lee's estate once it was confiscated by the Union Army?

Answer to the May trivia question: Once seized by the Union Army, the property would eventually become what we now know as Arlington National Cemetery!

WHAT WE'RE READING – “The Road to Dawn: Josiah Henson and the Story That Sparked the Civil War”, is a brand new best seller to get your Civil War Reading fix for the Summer. A biography that reads like a story; this sweeping story immortalizes the man who was the inspiration for Harriet Beecher Stowe’s Uncle Tom’s Cabin in an epic tale of courage and bravery in the face of unimaginable trials. Author Jared Brock does an excellent job bringing this story to life.

ATTENTION:

- SAVE THE DATE!!!! The Civil War Navy Symposium will be hosting a full day of speakers on Saturday, October 20th.
- The symposium will be held on board the Battleship New Jersey at her berth in Camden, NJ. The ship is docked on the Delaware River. For more information please visit oldbaldycwrt.org, or search their Facebook page. For registration, please go to brownpapertickets.com/event/3357360.
- Rick DiMarco has opened up his home for our final meeting before the Summer break. This is an RSVP event, and only open to paid members. If you plan to attend you MUST contact Rick DiMarco to confirm. His phone number is 732-232-5753. The address is 820 Ross St. Toms River, NJ 08753.

Reminders: The Jersey Shore Civil War Round Table has a full line of clothing available for those interested. T-Shirts, sweatshirts, and jackets are ready to ship! Contact Rick Trimble if you are interested.

In a case of inclement weather, our meetings will be dependent on the college’s decision to remain open, or close.
