MONTHLY TRIVIA QUESTION!

May Trivia Question: When was the last man killed in the Civil War?

April Trivia Question: The first paper currency was issued during the Civil War. What was it called?

ANSWER: Greenbacks!

WHAT WE'RE READING- Peach Orchard: A Gettysburg Battlefield Guide: Ralph Siegel and Mike Vallone both became Licensed Battlefield Guides at Gettysburg National Military Park, Pa., 15 years ago. Mike in particular was best known for developing disruptive, creative interpretations of the battle that dispelled much of what had been accepted as conventional wisdom. Those controversial ideas are included in their guided tour book. Ralph is scheduled to speak at our roundtable in the Fall!

POSITION TO BE FILLED: Rick Trimble is resigning from Publicity Director as of June 1st. We are looking for a replacement ASAP. Please contact Kim Kamaris if you are interested.

Speakers Bureau: Our Speakers Bureau brought in another $50 dollars last month. Half of it was donated to the Woodman Museum in Dover, New Hampshire. They have asked for donations to help restore an 1863 Civil War cannon.

Fundraiser!!!- Rick DeMarco and Jack Wilson have set up a fundraiser for us selling coffee in K-cups or bags. Please contact Rick at rdimarco1124@verizon.net

Reminder: The annual Allaire Village Civil War Weekend will be held on June 1-2 this year. The JSCWRT supports this by purchasing an ad in their program guide. Always an interesting weekend and members are urged to attend.

Clothing for Sale! The Jersey Shore Civil War Round Table has a full line of clothing available for those interested. T-Shirts, Sweatshirts, Jackets, etc... are ready to ship! Contact Rick Trimble if you are interested.

Gettysburg Magazine: If you take a free copy of Gettysburg magazine at our handout table, we ask that you provide a one or two dollar donation. These are "collector's items".
